

Only American Sign Language interpreters certified as NAD IV/V or by the RID should be able to work on VRS calls. This is essential to maintain quality and communication accessibility.